Trial of Major John H. Gee .- The 1 witnesses of the prosecution were examined Wednesday and Thursday last. They testifi particularly to the shooting of some of the p soners by the guard at Salisbury, but without c tinctly connecting Maj. Gee with the acts, furt! than by general instructions necessary to enfo. order and discipline in the prison.

The defense commenced the examination witnesses on Friday.

Dr. Charles A. Gee, of Quincey, Florida, bro er of the prisoner, testified, that Major Gee l. been a practitioner of medicine for twenty-fi years; that he had practiced in Quincey sithe close of the war-that he was frequently conversation with the commandant of that p during two months, and that his brother was p liely known there as Maj. John H. Gee; that was frequently advised by his friends to leave t country, but would not do so, that he was in cent of any crime and did not fear examinati Dr. Gee stated that another brother, David G was in Salisbury with Maj. Gee, in the Fall 1864, and died near Quincey on the 2d of Octob soon after his arrival there from Salisbury, wh he had stopped on his way from Virginia. Sydney S. Baxter, of Wytheville, Va., was Salisbury in September and October, 1864. tending to some business connected with citi prisoners, under the directen of Mr. Benjan Confederate Secretary of State. While the Maj. Gee received a dispatch that 10,000 prison of war would be sent immediately to Salisbu-r that Gen. Gardner came there about that tin but knew nothing of the intention to send prisoners there until the arrival of the dispat Maj. Gee was surprised at the movement, and monstrated earnestly against the prisoners be sent there, on account of the unfitness of place and the want of accommodations and p visions of all kinds, for so large a number; t he endeavored to have the site of the prichanged either to a point on the Yadkin river. woodland on the railroad seven miles from Sa bury, or to a hill a mile from the town; and h. ing failed in all these he made an effort to he the creek near the town turned so as to r through the prison grounds, but this was i practicable on account of the ascent of the grou Mr. Baxter wrote several letters, at the instan of Maj. Gee, to Maj. Carrington, in regard to p curing accommodations for the prisoners, and terwards made personal applications to the thorities in Richmond on the subject, with avail. There was a difficulty between Maj. ( and the Post Quartermaster, in regard to splies for the prisoners, the latter not filling 1 Maj. Gee's requisitions as promptly as he thou, he might have done.

Witness stated that, on his arrival in Richmo after leaving Salisbury, he called on Major ( rington and Mr. Kane and ascertained from the that the letters referred to had been received : referred to the Department of prisoners, and th on his applying there, he was told by Gen. G. ner, that it was none of his business. Mr. Bar testified to the scarcity of commissary stores Salisbury, while he was there; that at Maj. Go quarters, where he stayed, they were frequen without meat, because the commissary did have any to furnish. Witness testified as to rious efforts on the part of Maj. Gee to get lu ber, bunks and other supplies for the prison : 1 he was not acquainted with Maj. Gee before went to Salisbury, and that he had not seen 1 since until he came here; that during his sta-Salisbury, Maj. Gee exhibited every trait of most humane man; that he did not go to bed three nights, after the arrival of the prisoner war at Salisbury, but remained almost constan engaged in attending to the enlargement of prison enclosure, the opening of wells, and mak other preparations for the large number of 1 oners sent there.

Witness was aware of the fact of Maj. Gee's tention and wish to resign his position, on count of his inability to do what was humane : just to the prisoners.

On his cross examination, the witness str that he did not know how the affairs of the pri were managed after he left. Maj. Gee's posit was a peculiar one-Gen. Gardner had charge the prisoners in North-Carolina and Virgin Mal. Gee reported to him.

FROM TEXAS GOV. HAMILFON DENOUNCES THE CONVENTION.

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.-Gov. Hamilton, of Texas, made a speech at Austin recently in which he opposed some of the ordinances passed by the Convention as not being republican or meeting the demand made upon their constitutionality.

They had passed but one ordinance which accorded fully with the President's policy, and that was the one declaring the rebel war debt null and void. He appealed from the action of the Convention to the people. The Convention had passed an ordinance exempting all persons, who, under the civil or military power, had inflicted injury upon persons during the war, from being held accountable.

Such an ordinance would not and should not shield them. The loyal people of the State should work together. He believed that provision should be made to admit negroes to vote, if they became elevated and came up to a certain standard.

The convention had refused this, and re fused to give the blacks any quota of the school fund, or make any provision for their education. They can, however, be taxed to assist the whites in sending their children to school. He intended to announce to the people the names of those who had worked against the interests of the State.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE PENNSYLVANIA LEG ISLATURE.

HARRISBURG, April 13.—The Legislature djourned sine die yesterday, after adopting resolutions of thanks, on behalf of the State to Gov. Curtin for his labors in behalf of the interests of the country during the recent rebellion. Every member voted aye, and the result was received with loud and proonged cheering.

MORE RECONSTRUCTION TESTIMONY. We understand that the House Committee on the Judiciary will on Monday report the testimony of Hon. A. H. Stephens, Major-General Sheridan, Provisional Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, and Johnson, of Georgia, Mr. De Bow, of De Bow's Review, and others less known to fame. - Nat. Int.

There is not even a guess as to when the House will proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution from the Reconstruction Committee, naming the conditions on which Tennessee may resume its relations to the Federal Government. Nor is it known that the Committee have recently matured any measure with regard to the late rebellious States in addition to those already reported. The Committee continue to examine witnesses, thus daily adding to its already large accumulation of evidence, which, though or dered to be, has not yet been printed .-Enough matter has been collected to make several ponderous volumes .- Wash, Cor. N.

In commemoration of the assassination of Mr. Lincoln all the public offices in Washington were closed on Saturday last. Congress was not in session that day.

CONGRESSIONAL. WASHINGTON, April 13 .- In the Senate Mr. Morrill gave notice that he would, at an early day, bring in a bill to establish negro suffrage in the District of Columbia. The House adapted a resolution instructing the Committee on Commerce to inquire and rejot what legislation is necessary to prevent the introduction of cholera into the ports of the United States. The bill for the re-organization of the army was discussed. No vote was taken.

DEATH OF HON, DANIEL 8. DICKINSON. NEW YORK, April 13.—Hon, Daniel S. Dickinson died last night, at the residence of S. G. Courtney, his brother-in-law, of strangulated hernia. He was down town yesterday attending to business.

EXPECTED RELEASE OF MR DAVIS The President has no doubt intimated his purpose to release Jefferson Davis on parole, as neither Congress nor the United States Supreme Court will take any measure for his trial. He has taken care that his position on the subject should be understood. It cannot be doubted that the President will soon follow up his peace proclamation with an extension of amnesty to some classes heretofore excepted from it. He has conferred with General Grant and Mr. Seward on this subject. They are believed to favor this

PETERSBURG WHOLESALE PRICES.

Petersburg, April 13, P. M., 1866. Tobacco.-The breaks the past week have been moderate, and the market closed with a better feeling, with some advance on most kinds. Receipts have been light. Yellow wrappers are much wanted, and would bring very high prices. Good sweet fillers continue in demand and at full rates.

Cotton.—There has been a fair business done the past week, but at lower prices, and sales the past few days have been mostly on a basis of 33c. for prime, but at the close the market is stiffer, and for strictly prime over that, we think, could be had. We quote common to pretty fair, 27@32c.

Guano.-Sales are making at $1 10 in small way. Another cargo is daily expected. and planters who still want had better send in their orders at an early day, as no more will likely be brought here this season. Lard .- We note a better demand, and now quote at 18@20c.

Virginia Bacon-is also in better request, and we quote it at 16@161c. Grain .- Corn is higher. We don't know of any sales of wheat.

Groceries.—Unchanged. FINANCIAL.

Gold .- Buying price $1 25; selling do $1 28. Silver.—Buying price $1 17; selling do $1 20. Mexican dollars $1 45.

GOV. MARVIN HARD AT WORK .- The Marianna Courier publishes a letter from Washington, dated the 16th ult.; which shows that although Gov. Marvin is not permitted to take the seat in the Senate to which he has been elected, he is devoting himself to the in-terests of the people of the State with zeal

We quote the following and earnestness. paragraph from the letter: MR. EDITOR :- Gov. Marvin to-day went with myself and your townsman, Mr. Alderman, to the Post Master General. The Governor urged upon him the necessity of a mail route being established from Marianna to Chattahoochee, thus placing continuous service to Tallahassee, and westward from the Capitol. This the Governor urged strongly; the Post Master General finally agreed to it, and said he would give a weekly route, but Governor Marvin did not stop at this untill he obtained a mail route from Marianna to Chattahoochee twice a weck. The highest amount allowed by the Department on any route carried in any State once a week, is ten dollars a mile, and in proportion for more frequent service. Governor Marvin urged on the Post Master General the difficulty and expense of the ferry, and finally got him to agree that he would give the contract to a responsible bidder for six hundred and fifty dollars, per annum, for semi-weekly service This route is in addition to the route via Bainbridge. The Governor tried to induce the Office department not to require the parties to take the test oath, and showed the impossibility of getting proper parties who could take it, but he was answered that the law requird it, and in no case could it be dispensed with. I can see no way to avoid this except to get some unmarried Lady to take it in her name, where a post office on the route is wanted if a man cannot be found who can take the test oath, for no contract will be given to those who cannot take it. Governor Marvin is working hard here for Florida and her interests, and is doing much good for her and the whole South, in fact, he has more influence here than all the Southern members. because the people here have confidence in him and his weighty influence is felt in all matters connected with Southern affairs. He is more a Floridian in in Washington, than he is in Tallahassee; he individualizes himself with her people and the State with cabinet ministers, heads of bureaus, and officials, senators, representatives and the northern people, he talks square up for Florida and her rights, and Washington, in the days of Buchanan, never heard any man talk more boldly and firmly for the best interests of Florida and the whole South than does Senator Marvin I have heard him plead to the Secretary of war and at the Department of Military Justice for the citizen captives of Florida as if he was talking for his own blood relatives; here trying to get the test oath abolished, there seeking a map for a man who was trying to start again after being sadly bruised by the war; at another place, trying to get a poor man's property back and succeed-ing after persistent efforts; now applying for a Post Mistress, as the test oath kept out a
